NOTES

1. Citizenship refers to the country to which a person owes allegiance. The term "Canadian" means a person who was born in Canada or who has rights of citizenship in Canada, unless that person has subsequently become a citizen of another country.
2. Under item 11 (1) the trade, profession or kind of work in which the deceased was occupied before death is to be inserted. For example, printer, doctor, stenographer, sales clerk, office clerk, elevator operator, salesman, labourer, carpenter, et cetera. If a housewife in her own home, state "housewife".
3. Under item 11 (2) the type of industry or business in which the deceased was occupied before death is to be inserted. For example, grocery store, law office, departmental store, insurance, banking, clothing, newspaper, et cetera. If a housewife in her own home, state "At home".

EXTRACTS FROM THE VITAL STATISTICS ACT

17. (2) A statement in the prescribed form containing personal particulars of the deceased person shall, upon the request of the funeral director in charge of the body, be completed, certified and delivered to the funeral director,
 - (a) by the nearest relative present at the death or last illness, or any relative who may be available;
 - (b) if no relative is available, by the occupier of the premises in which the person died, or if the occupier be the person who has died, by any adult person residing in the premises who was present at the death or has knowledge of the personal particulars;
 - (c) if the death occurred in unoccupied premises and no relative is available, by any adult person who was present at the death or has knowledge of the personal particulars; or
 - (d) by the coroner who has been notified of the death and has made an investigation or held an inquest regarding the death.
21. - (1) Subject to subsection 2 of section 20, no person shall bury, cremate or otherwise dispose of the body of any person who dies within Ontario or remove the body from the registration division within which the death occurred or the body is found, and no person shall take part in or conduct any funeral or religious service for the purpose of burial, cremation or other disposition of the body of a deceased person, unless the death has been registered under this Act and an acknowledgment of registration of death and a burial permit has been obtained from the division registrar.
